PAMELA GOLCHET MD

Dr. Pamela Golchet is a Board-certified ophthalmologist and Retina specialist. She received the Regents Scholarship to attend UCLA where she graduated summa cum laude. She then attended UC San Francisco School of Medicine where she was again awarded the prestigious Regents Scholarship, the highest scholastic honor bestowed. After receiving her medical degree, Pamela attended Northwestern University where she completed her residency in Ophthalmology and continued on to complete a prestigious fellowship in Vitreo-retinal Diseases. She served as a clinical instructor of Ophthalmology at Northwestern prior to relocating to LA. Pamela joined Kaiser Permanente in Woodland Hills as a vitreo-retinal disease specialist where she currently treats patients with serious vision threatening retinal conditions.

Pamela's involvement in clinical research has resulted in multiple presentations, several publications in top peer-reviewed journals, and numerous awards, grants, and recognitions from the American Academy of Ophthalmol, the American Ophthalmol. Society, the Assoc. for Research in Vision and Ophthalmol, and the American Society of Retina Specialists.

SHILLA HEKMAT

A classically trained pianist, Shilla Hekmat is an educator, composer, author of sixteen Piano Method books, and founder of Shilla Hekmat Music Academy. She has been teaching piano performance, composition, and theory for 26 years. She graduated from CSU Northridge, Department of Music in 1989. Currently she teaches piano and composition. Her success in her teaching prompted her to author a series of instructional method books in which she has incorporated 26 years of astounding accomplishments.

She is a chairman of Composers Today of Music Teachers Association of California and an active affiliate of Music Teachers National Association and American College of Musicians. She has been a judge at various music competitions. Her method of teaching has been published in Keyboard Companion Magazine. Her devotion to children extends in her involvement in Looking Beyond, a charitable organization dedicated to enriching the lives of children with special needs. Shilla Hekmat is married to Dr. Kamyar Hekmat and has two children, Paulina, age 20 and Kevin, age 18. She currently resides in Beverly Hills, CA.
