Dr. Guita Balakhane

Consultant in Internal Medicine, Nephrology and Hypertension

Guita Balakhane, MD, received her medical degree from the University of Pennsylvania School of Medicine. She completed her specialty training in internal medicine and sub-specialty of nephrology at the University of California, Los Angeles School of Medicine. Dr. Balakhane's research has focused extensively on kidney transplantation. She is the founder and president of the Center for Internal Medicine and Nephrology Medical Group at Cedars-Sinai Medical Towers and serves on the attending staff at Cedars-Sinai Medical Center where she teaches physicians in training. Dr. Balakhane has a keen interest in complimentary approaches to medical healing and is an advocate of Vegan Life. She believes that healing requires working with the heart and soul as well as using the traditional tools of western medicine to treat the whole human being. Dr. Balakhane has founded "Youth Soccer for World Peace" bringing the message of oneness and peace worldwide. She is married to Dr. Mehran Khorsandi, an interventional cardiologist at Cedars-Sinai Medical Center. They are the proud parents of two wonderful children, Melody and Matthew.

Dr. Shahla Kohanzadeh Yousefzadeh

Shahla was born in Iran to the family of Dr Nourollah and Ashraf Kohanzadeh. She earned her Doctorate degree in 1976 from Tehran Medical University. In midst of her Neurology residency she had to leave the country. She continued her education at USC hospital for both her Hypertension fellowship and her post graduate internship. Dr Shahla kohanzadeh has been practicing medicine in Los Angeles since then. Currently she works as a family physician in her private practice. Shahla married Dr Farid Yousefzadeh and they are blessed with two children. Their son Elliott, graduated from the Marshal School of business at USC. Their daughter, Chanel, is currently in dental school at the University of Pacific School of Dentistry and will be graduating this year as a dentist.

Shulamit Nazarian, Gallery Owner & Director

Shulamit Nazarian has an extensive background in arts, architecture and philanthropy. She first conceived of Shulamit Gallery in 2006 and recently expanded to her Venice location. Born in Teheran, Shulamit immigrated to the United States, where she studied architecture at University of Southern California and then completed her degree at Pratt Institute in Brooklyn. Upon graduating, she returned to Los Angeles where she worked at Wilson & Associates, an internationally acclaimed interior design firm. Shulamit has served on many boards; presently, she sits on the Milken Community High School Board of Trustees, the Art Advisory Board at the USC Hillel, Zimmer Children's Museum YouThink Advisory Committee, Board of Trustees at the Santa Monica Museum of Art (SMMoA), and supports events in Southern California for the Friends of the Jerusalem Academy of Music and Dance in Los Angeles. She is an active member of the Fellows of Contemporary Arts, Santa Monica Museum, Artis and Art Table. Shulamit is also a supporter of arts and education in the Los Angeles community through her gallery's non-profit entity Shoe-LA. Shula is blessed with her three sons; Ariel, Aaron & Élan Torbati and is currently engaged to Mr. Bruce Adlhoeh.
